BAY TO BREAKERS – BARE TO BREAKERS Sunday, May 18, 2003

Once more Lupin will be a gathering spot for nudist folks coming from both inside and outside the Bay Area to participate in the “Bare to Breakers” race in San Francisco. (Note that it's okay to walk rather than run the “race.”) Special Lupin rates for participants will be offered from Friday, May 16, to Monday morning, May 19. Plus, Lupin will have a light breakfast available race day (Sunday morning) from 5 am to 6 am. Please order and pay for this on Friday at the Restaurant.

Also, if a sufficient number of paying bus riders sign up ahead, Lupin will again make arrangements for a bus to take participants, for $25 a person round-trip, from Lupin (at 6 am) to a short distance from the Bare-2-Breakers gathering spot in San Francisco – about a 75-minute ride from here. Returning passengers will later be picked up a few blocks from Footstock (the end of the race), and the bus will depart at 1 pm for a direct return trip to Lupin.

The bus is limited to 47 passengers, so it is wise to reserve a seat early through the Lupin office (408-353-2250). On race day, don't forget to bring a towel for drying off after the race, plus something dry to put between your body and the bus seat – both going to “the City” and coming back. (A second big dry towel or clothing will do).

For up-to-date information about transportation, food, and staying at Lupin, stop by or call the Lupin office or check the website at <http://baretobreakers.com/Lupin2.html>

Note: The Bay to Breakers race is not just a local affair. The winners of the race tend to be from places halfway around the world. We have had a couple of fellows from England, and a number from other areas of California to come stay at Lupin and participate at the race. Many thanks to Lupin members and staff who contribute time and effort to make Bare to Breakers such a fun and special event.
