Beyond the “Messe”

Discover Frankfurt with LMS

Here's your irreverent, insightful and slightly nerdy guide to surviving (and thriving at)

CPHI
Frankfurt

A Note from our CEO

Dear fellow molecule movers, batch builders and formulation whisperers, Hallo! As the world of pharma converges in Frankfurt for CPHI 2025, we at Lupin Manufacturing Solutions (LMS) are thrilled to welcome you, not just to our Booth 4.1 J35, but also to a city that is far more than suits, sausages and skyline shots.

Frankfurt may not seduce like Barcelona or offer old world charm like Milan, but it hustles hard, works smart and serves apple wine in charming taverns where million-euro deals probably begin with “Prost!”

This guide is not just about travel or sightseeing. It is also about unlocking a vibe of connection, discovery and a few laughs along the way. Think of it as your clinical trial companion, but with more personality coupled with humour and less paperwork.

See you at the Messe and maybe by the Main River at sunset.

Warmly Yours

Dr. Abdelaziz Toumi & Team LMS

What to do in your short gaps between Meetings?

Because let's be honest, you won't have a full day off, but you will have quick windows to explore:

Your 15-Minute Itinerary Menu:

Skyline views	From the Iron Bridge (Eiserner Steg)
Römerberg	For a dose of medieval charm with your metrics
Museumsufer	Choose your intellectual poison: art, film, architecture, history
Palmengarten	When your brain says "I need more oxygen"
Skyline Plaza	Retail therapy within walking distance of Messe
Mainkai Promenade	Power-walks + peace + pigeons

Bonus: Watch Germans lose their minds over football at Opernplatz if there's a game on!

Pharma by Day, Prost by Night!

Frankfurt does not brag, but it knows how to help you relax after 7 pm.

LMS After-Hours Map:

- The Kinly Bar: Hidden. Intimate. Cocktail wizardry worthy of a chromatography column
- Bockenheimer Warte: Cheap drinks, loud laughter, occasional philosophy debates
- Main Nizza: Refined and riverside, great for dinner deals that go beyond decks

Reminder: What happens in Sachsenhausen may end up on your team's WhatsApp!

Retail Therapy: The Only Side Effect You'll Enjoy in Frankfurt!

Where Molecules Meet Merchandise (Top Shopping Zones)

Whether you are a molecule on the move or a scientist off-duty, Frankfurt's shopping scene is a potent mix of luxury, local and lifestyle.

- Zeil Street: Like a blockbuster drug— high-impact, fast acting and full of side effects (on your wallet).
- Goethestraße: For those with champagne budgets and monoclonal tastes – think Prada, Gucci, and Chanel.
- Fressgass: Where fashion meets food— perfect for post-conference carb-loading and couture browsing.
- Berger Straße: Indie boutiques and cozy cafés— ideal for low-dose retail therapy.
- Skyline Plaza: A mall so sleek, even your lab equipment would be jealous.
- Konstablerwache Market: Seasonal, artisanal and perfect for spontaneous purchases (no prescription required).

What to Buy (Besides Lab Coats)

- Apple Wine Bembel: Frankfurt's signature jug— not FDA-approved, but highly recommended.
- Homburg Hat: A classic German fashion molecule— stable, stylish and historically significant.
- Designer fashion: Because even pharma pros need to look sharp outside the cleanroom.
- Local delicacies: Sausages, cheeses and chocolates— the real “controlled substances.”

Cultural Curiosities You'll Love

- Goethe, the literary giant, was born here. He probably would've made a great regulatory strategist!
- The Frankfurt Book Fair hosts 7,500+ publishers. It's like CPHI for the print world!
- The City Museums are excellent. Therefore, if you miss your scientific poster sessions, there's always a Plan B.
- Apfelwein is served in a special ribbed glass called Geripples, much like how we serve high-potency APIs in amber vials!
