

Kurt Nielsen

As the President of Lupin – Somerset, Dr. Nielsen is responsible for the overall operations of the Gavis-Novel Somerset business based out of Somerset, New Jersey. An accomplished pharmaceutical executive, Dr. Nielsen has over 20 years of experience in creating and managing high growth businesses; research, development and launching new products in the US; managing transactions, business development, and Mergers & Acquisitions.

Dr. Nielsen Kurt was previously with Sandoz, where he held dual responsibility of being the Global Head of Product Development as well as being the Vice-President of US Product Development, Portfolio and Launch Management for generic and brand products. Having started his pharmaceutical career at Johnson & Johnson, Dr. Nielsen's previous leadership roles include being the Chief Technology Officer & Senior Vice-President at Catalent Pharma Solutions, Senior Vice President in-charge of R&D, Technology ops. at URL Mutual Pharmaceuticals, and Executive Director of Generic R&D at TEVA Pharmaceuticals.

Dr. Nielsen holds a PhD in Chemistry from Villanova University and has a BS in Chemistry from the University of Delaware.