

Dr. Thierry Volle

President – Europe, Middle-East & Africa

Mr. Thierry Volle is the President of Europe, Middle-East & Africa (EMEA) for Lupin Limited and is responsible for the company's growth and development in Europe, Russia & CIS, and the Middle East and African markets. Prior to joining Lupin, Mr. Volle was with Vifor Pharma where he headed EU & International business operations. He was also associated with Wyeth and worked his way through multiple roles of increasing responsibility in Europe as well as the US. Mr. Volle has extensive international experience in building and growing specialty pharmaceuticals businesses across markets, specifically in EMEA, with a focus on business & market development, integration & change management and product portfolio management.

Mr Volle has been also playing an active role in several Industry association such as the Swiss Pharma industry associations VIPS as member of the executive Board, but also as member of the Executive Committee of EFPIA.

Mr. Volle holds a Business diploma from Institut Supérieur de Gestion, a Master's degree in Computer Science from Centre d'Etudes supérieures industrielles – Centrale, Paris and advanced studies Diploma in Biotechnologies from EPFL. He has also completed various Executive Programs at the Harvard School of Public Health, and INSEAD.