Macquarie Shortlists 3 Bidders for Road Asset Sale

VINCI Highways. Sekura, Vertis to start due diligence soon

Reghu Balakrishnan

Mumbai: Global infrastructure investor Macquarie Asset Management (MAM) has shortlisted three bidders — France's VINCI Highwavs. Edelweiss-backed Sekura Roads and KKR-backed Vertis Infrastructure Trust — for the proposed sale of its toll-operate-transfer (ToT)1road assets in India, said people with knowledge of the development. Other contenders that submitted non-binding offers include CPP Investments-owned Interise Trust, IRB Infrastructure and Cube Highways. JP Morgan is advising Macquarie on the transaction.

ted to begin due diligence shortly, with binding bids likely to be submitted in the coming months, the people said. The submitted bids are around ₹9.500 crore, according to the people.

A Macquarie spokesperson declined while emails sent to KKR and VINCI Highways did not elicit any responses till press time. Macquarie officially launched the sale of its largest road portfolio in India in September, seeking an enterprise value of about ₹10.000 crore ($1.2 billion). The process followed an initial exploration phase that began last December, when the firm started scoutingfor bankers, ET first reported. The portfolio comprises nine toll road projects spanning 648 km across Andhra Pradesh and Gujarat, housed under Safeway Concessions Pvt Ltd, a platform created by Macquarie. These assets are backed by its Asia Infrastructure Fund 2 key ports and industrial clusters. The Gujarat roads provide access to the ceramic hub of Morbi and major ports such as Kandla and Mundra.

Panasonic India Head Manish Sharma Quits; Japanese Exec to Assume Role

Writankar Mukheriee

Kolkata: Panasonic's India head and chairman Manish Sharma has put in his napers. His role will be filled by Tadashi Chiba, the managing director of the Japanese consumer electronics manufacturer's flagship entity in India—Panasonic Life Solutions.

With this move, Panasonic has gone back to the Japanese top management in India. It was one of the first Far Eastern electronic companies to appoint an Indian, Sharma, for leadership role — first as managing director since 2012, executive officer of parent Panasonic Corp since 2016 and eventually as chairman of Indian operations in 2021. The company made an internal announcement during a town hall on Friday in the presence of Panasonic Corp's global CEO Masahiro Shina-da, who is currently visiting India. A Panasonic India spokesperson said it was Sharma's personal decision to move on after a 17-year tenure to pursue new aspirations and that the matter was finalised with mutual agreement. He said Chiba has been spearheading India business as managing director and CEO and will assume additional responsibilities.
